

SWCA Promise Neighborhood

Newark, New Jersey

The SWCA (South Ward Children's Alliance) Promise Neighborhood serves children and families in the South Ward of Newark, New Jersey. In partnership with 8 schools and over 25 other agencies, SWCA coordinates a two-generation (parent and child) continuum of supports focused on improving the educational, health, employment, and housing disparities between South Ward residents. The SWCA Promise Neighborhood emphasizes enhancing the quality of existing programs, scaling evidence-based practices, building a system and culture of accountability, affecting policy change where needed, and engaging students and families.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Gina and her two children had been living in a household with a domestic abuser. Even though the Family Hub program of the SWCA Promise Neighborhood had assisted them to escape this situation, Gina's son Matthew, who had missed 63 days of school the previous year, continued to show signs of trauma and was afraid to leave the security of their new home. Gina's family coach connected Matthew to treatment for his severe anxiety and worked with the school social worker to modify his school schedule to facilitate healing. Matthew still has a long way to go, but he has missed far fewer school days this year, allowing Gina to focus on her job and stabilizing the family.
